About the Department

The Department of Economics was started in 1962 and the Department of Business Economics and Banking was started in 1969. The PG Department of Economics was started in 2005.

The Department focuses on academic rigour in the dispensing and transacting of curriculum, with a strong emphasis on infusing in the student community an ability of application based learning.

PG Seminar has been an annual feature of the Dept of Economics since 2007

About the Seminar

This year, the department is organizing a PG seminar on the theme "India as a Global Leader: Perceptions and Reality"

'Not only Regional but a Global Superpower', 'The World's Newest Economic Superpower', 'Superpower in Making' – these are some of the titles which have been and being used for the Indian Economy. With the position of the Third Largest Economy in the World (PPP based GDP), with positive growth forecast, favourable demographic conditions and particularly with the advantage of demographic dividend; a vibrant IT sector and substantial software exports, healthy savings and as the recipient of the highest amount of FDI and remittances, continuous diversification of the economy, dynamic role in international politics, one of the largest democracies in the world, Host for 2023 G20 Summit, etc. - no one will doubt India's ability and prospects to be the World Economic Superpower and the World Leader in the near future.

However, India is facing many challenges in this journey - increasing unemployment, widespread inequalities and poverty, poor infrastructure, poor education, corruption, to name few.

India with all its diversity, weaknesses and limitations need to take tremendous efforts to be the Superpower. India is continuously striving to progress as a Growth Stalwart with variety of the steps like Start-up India, Digital India, Make in India, etc.

	This seminar is an endeavour towards initiating the deliberations about the challenges that India is facing and India's prospects to be the superpower. It is expected that there will be focused thinking and discussions about the varied aspects of Indian Economy like economic, political, social, cultural, demographic, etc
