Special Online Classes for Marathi medium students. 2022-23

In response to the need for tailored support for marathi medium students, the department initiated special marathi lectures - online and offline. The primary goal was to bridge the language gap and provide effective learning opportunities for first-year, second-year, and third-year students.

The lectures covered essential topics in politics and public administration. Adaptations were made to ensure marathi medium students could grasp the subject matter, including the provision of additional resources. This approach ensured active participation and comprehension among the students.

The special lectures resulted in increased engagement, and a better understanding of the subjects. Student feedback has been overwhelmingly positive, highlighting the success of this initiative. The department remains committed to offering special lectures and aims to enhance their quality.

We plan to continue refining our approach to benefit Marathi medium students in the future.
