CWE and IIC- GuestLectureon "Incubationfor Entrepreneurs."

On 27.7.2023 the CWE and IIC hosted a guest lecture on the topic of "Incubation for Entrepreneurs." The speaker for the event was Dr. Sabiha Fazalbhoy, a renowned expert in the field of entrepreneurship and incubation. She is known for her contributions to the field of entrepreneurship. This session was attended by students pursuing various disciplines and CWE student members.

The session talked about Understanding Incubation: Dr. Sabiha started by explaining the concept of business incubation. She described it as a process that involves providing support, resources, and guidance to early-stage startups and entrepreneurs to help them grow and develop into sustainable businesses. Importance of Incubation: The speaker emphasized the significance of incubation in the entrepreneurial ecosystem. Incubators play a vital role in reducing the failure rate of startups by providing them with crucial resources and mentorship. Incubation Process: The speaker walked the students through the typical incubation process, from the application stage to graduation. She shed light on the various stages of mentorship, workshops, and support that startups receive during their incubation journey. Total number of students who attended the session was 132 and no of faculty attended the session was 5.

The session provided students with a comprehensive understanding of the significance of incubation in nurturing entrepreneurial ventures. Attendees gained valuable insights into the world of startups and how incubators serve as a valuable support system for these emerging businesses.
