To Whom It May Concern

I, Nida Shaikh, Founder and Director of Manah Center for Mental Well Being, Pune, am providing this letter of completion of internship for Amatullah Kachwala.

Amatullah has completed a total of 40 hours of internship with my organisation in a period of six months.

Her internship duties included planning, designing, assessing and executing therapeutic sessions for young girls in an orphanage associated with our organisation in Pune.

Throughout the internship Amatullah has successfully exhibited the following qualities:

- Punctuality
- Creativity
- Curiosity
- Proactiveness
- Empathy
- Team work
- Timely execution and completion of tasks
- Facilitation skills
- Active Listening Skills
- Compassionate interaction
- Timely submissions and report writing
- Polite interaction with peers
- Eagerness to learn and grow

I believe Amatullah will be a good contributor to any organisation or academic institution she decides to be a part of and am optimistic that she will bring about creative and progressive changes in them with a lot of humility.

I wish her all the luck and ease for her future endeavours.
