Time: 12.00 p.m. – 1.00 p.m.

Number of Student Participants: 39

Venue: Room No. 305

Report

The Department of Sociology organized a guest lecture on 'Opportunities in Volunteering' on Thursday, 14th December, 2023 in Room No. 305 at 12.00 p.m.

Mr. Sanjay Dalmia, founder-Director of OpenLinks Foundation and his team conducted the session.

Mr. Dalmia first shared the experience of his work in the field of education through OpenLinks. He elaborated on how OpenLinks is promoting the use of digital technology in improving learning outcomes in government schools. His team presented a model of volunteering for students. This volunteering would involve training of students in using the App developed by the organization and also in applying certain behaviour science techniques to support classroom teaching as well as to assist in monitoring teachers' contribution.

The team shared their Google form with students and urged them to join in the project as volunteers.
