ABOUT

Internship Orientation held-

For: FYBBA and SYBBA

Date- 11/8/23

Time- 9:30am

Room No. 309

Placement and Internship orientation for FYBBA and SYBBA was conducted with the objective to formally introduce the placement cell of the college and the members of the placement cell, that helps groom students for interviews and assist graduating students and find suitable employment opportunities. Also, providing students with information and guidance regarding procuring employment for its students.

A formal presentation was made showcasing the numerous multinational companies that the college has a tie up with for offering internships and conducting placement drives so that students can secure jobs in reputed institutions through the college.

Discussions were made regarding assistance that the college will provide the students with, in regards to soft skills like group discussions, guidance meet and greet, communication skills, personality development, etc.

To summarize, the students were facilitated with insights on the following grounds: -

1. The hierarchy and functioning of the placement cell.
2. Benefits of Placement and Internship.
3. Tips to make the most of Internship.
4. Different internship opportunities and companies approaching St. Mira's College both on and off campus.
5. Activities conducted by the placement cell to enhance the student's employability.

OUTCOME

- The students were introduced to their BBA Training Placement Officer (TPO)- Mrs. Kajal Jaisinghani, BBA Placement Representatives (Aanchal Sasanani and Mukti Chawla) and class Placement Representatives (PR's).
- Students were given the opportunity to question and clear their queries.
- Names of students interested in internships will be collected by the class PR's.
- Class PR's will maintain a record of students taking up internships, whether through college or externally.
- Career guidance and soft skill development sessions will be held for students aspiring for placement.
