To mark the completion of 90 glorious years of St. Mira's College for Girls, Pune, as part of a year-long celebration, the Theatre Ensemble students of the College, under the supervision of theatre director Hina Siddiqui, performed a play, Shatter, conceptualised and crafted by SYBA English Special students. This is part of the theatre course conducted by the college which has a tradition of staging plays annually and now aspires to do so biannually.

On the 28th of February 2024, the students staged 2 performances at 2:00pm and 5:00 pm and for the junior and senior students of St Mira's College and for friends and family. These were open, public, performances to spread awareness to sensitise audiences on gender issues. It was a platform for passionate, fiery, young women to share their concerns and beliefs on stage reaching out and connecting to other young people to build a peaceful and compassionate future.

The acting, production, marketing and management was all handled by all 32 of the Theatre Ensemble students themselves.
