HUMAN RIGHTS DAY – 2023-2024

On Monday, 11th of December 2023, St. Mira's College for Girls celebrated Human Rights Day. The theme of the session was- Human Rights in Contemporary Society

The session began with a brief overview of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and its significance in shaping international human rights law. Students actively engaged in identifying and discussing various human rights issues prevalent in today's world. Topics included:

- Gender inequality and discrimination.
- Racial injustice and systemic racism.
- LGBTQ+ rights and discrimination.
- Refugee rights and migration challenges.
- Environmental degradation and climate justice.

The concept of intersectionality was explored, emphasizing how various forms of discrimination and oppression intersect to create unique experiences of marginalization. Discussions highlighted the importance of understanding and addressing multiple dimensions of identity in the fight for human rights.

The discussion also focused on the role of advocacy and activism in promoting human rights and social justice. Examples of successful advocacy campaigns and grassroots movements were shared, inspiring discussions on the power of collective action and solidarity. 19 students participated in this activity.
