INDEPENDENCE DAY 2023-24

The Department of Politics and Public Administration organized a week-long celebration on the occasion of the Independence Day from 10th to 15th August 2023

Independence Day marks a significant milestone in the history of our nation, symbolizing the spirit of freedom, unity, and resilience. The occasion was celebrated with fervor and enthusiasm, as students came together to honor the sacrifices of our heroes and express their patriotism through various activities.

Activity 1: Making Cards for Soldiers

One of the highlights of the Independence Day celebration was the initiative to make cards for our brave soldiers stationed at the borders. Students from our department participated wholeheartedly in this endeavor, pouring their gratitude and well wishes onto colorful cards adorned with messages of appreciation and encouragement. The activity not only fostered a sense of solidarity but also served as a heartfelt gesture of support for the guardians of our nation.

Activity 2: Patriotic Song Rendition

Music has always been a powerful medium to evoke emotions and stir patriotism. As part of the celebration, a group of talented students showcased their vocal prowess by performing a medley of patriotic songs. The melodies resonated throughout the campus, instilling a sense of pride and reverence among the audience. From timeless classics to contemporary compositions, each song reverberated with the spirit of independence, reminding everyone of the sacrifices made by our forefathers to secure our freedom.
