DOCUMENTARY SCREENING- MAO-CHAIRMAN2023-24

The Department of Politics and Public Administration organized a screening of the documentary- MAO-Chairman for the students of First Year-Open Elective Course on 2nd September 2023. The screening aimed to provide an insightful exploration into the life and legacy of Mao Zedong, one of the most influential figures in modern Chinese history.

"MAO-Chairman" offered a comprehensive portrayal of Mao Zedong's leadership, spanning his rise to power, revolutionary ideologies, and the socio-economic transformations that defined his tenure as the Chairman of the Communist Party of China. Through archival footage, interviews with scholars, and historical analysis, the documentary provided a nuanced understanding of Mao's complex persona and his enduring impact on China and the global political landscape.

The screening elicited active engagement from the audience, prompting lively discussions and debates on various aspects of Mao Zedong's leadership and his contributions to Chinese politics and society. Students actively participated in post-screening Q&A sessions, expressing their perspectives and seeking clarification on key themes explored in the documentary.

The event underscored the department's commitment to fostering critical thinking and scholarly engagement among students, thereby enriching their academic experience and deepening their understanding of global politics and governance.
