DOCUMENTARY SCREENING- Second World War 2023-24

The Department of Politics and Public Administration organized a screening of the documentary- Second World War for the students of SYBA on 4th September 2023. The screening aimed to provide an insightful discussion on Second World War as a background to the learning of the concept of Cold War in class.

The documentary provided a comprehensive overview of the Second World War, covering various aspects such as the political tensions leading to the war, key battles and campaigns, the involvement of different countries, the Holocaust, and the aftermath of the conflict. It utilized a combination of archival footage, interviews with historians and veterans, and narration to depict the scale and impact of the war. 41 students participated.
