Report on Visit to St. Larn Hotel on 04th Sep 2023 for SYBBA_HR Specialisation Students

The primary objectives of the visit to the St. Larn Hotel by the students specializing in Human Resource Management were as follows:

The visit to St. Larn Hotel for students specializing in Human Resource Management had several key objectives:

Practical Exposure: The visit aimed to provide students with practical insights into HR management within the hospitality industry, moving beyond theoretical knowledge.

Legal Awareness: It sought to familiarize students with the legal aspects of HR management in the context of the hospitality sector, including compliance with relevant laws and regulations.

Operational Insights: Students gained an understanding of the day-to-day HR operations of the hotel, covering areas such as recruitment and employee development.

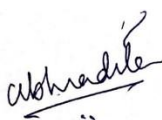

Professional Interaction: Students had the opportunity to engage with Mr. Manish Pandey, the HR Manager, who shared his expertise and allowed students to ask questions related to HR practices.

Theory-Practice Integration: The visit aimed to bridge the gap between classroom theory and real-world HR application.

Enhanced Learning: Through presentations and discussions, students deepened their understanding of HR management challenges and best practices in the hospitality industry.

Holistic Skill Development: The visit contributed to the overall development of HR students, equipping them with practical skills and ethical awareness for future HR careers.

In summary, the visit was a valuable educational experience, offering students practical knowledge, legal awareness, and insights into HR operations in the hospitality sector. It facilitated interaction with a seasoned HR professional, promoting a well-rounded skill set for future endeavours in HR management. Total number of Students who visited was 44 accompanied by their faculty Abhradita Chatterjee Nahvi
