Course: Major +2 Title of Paper: Sociology of Everyday

Semester: I Credits: 2 Subject Code: AMAJSOC123105 Lectures: 30

Course Outcomes:

At the end of the course, the learner will be able to:

- CO1 Understand basic sociological thinking frames.
- CO2 Demonstrate how our everyday life is socially constructed.
- CO3 Develop sensibilities towards social constructs used in sanctioning inequalities.
- CO4 Demonstrate skills of team building and group work.

Uni	it 1: The Social Construction Everyday Life	- 15
	Thinking Frames - Macro Vs. Micro, Structure Vs. Agency, Material Vs.	Culture
	Sociology of Everyday
	Sociology of Consumption
	Social Construction of reality

Unit 2: Looking Good: Politics of Beauty Industry Beauty as a Social Construction Beauty as an ideology Looking Good: A Growth Industry

Recommended Text Books:

- Johnston J., Cairns K., Bauman S.: Introducing Sociology Using the Stuff of Everyday Life, Routledge, NY, 2017
- Macionis John: Sociology, Pearson, New Delhi; 2006

Reference Books:

- Schaefer Richard, Sociology- A Brief Introduction, Tata McGraw Hills, NY, 2006.
- Livesey, Sociology Coursebook, Cambridge University Press, UK, 2014

Board of Studies	Department	Name	Signature
Chairperson (HoD)	Sociology	Prof. Vaishali Diwakar	Winihan

Board of Studies	Name	Signature
Chairperson (HoD)	Prof. Vaishali Diwakar	Dialar
Faculty	Dr.Vaishali Joshi		West
Faculty	Ms Manjita Kulkarni	MBK
Subject Expert (Outside SPPU)	Prof. Sandip Choudhary		1. 13 - Den &
Faculty	Dr.Anagha Tendulkar	A.P. Pahil
VC Nominee (SPPU)	Dr. Chetana Desai		Cler. 17/5/23
Industry Expert	Dr. Triveni Mathur	My athur 17/5/23
Alumni	Ms. Aditi Sarkar		AJ8

Board of Studies	Department	Name	Signature
Chairperson (HoD)	Sociology	Prof. Vaishali Diwakar	Diahar